Eight years ago, in an effort to show support for the City of Detroit, newly appointed District Superintendent, Rev. Melanie Carey, initiated Hands4Detroit on the first Saturday of October, 2012.

On Saturday, October 5, 2019, we will continue the tradition. The Greater Detroit District Superintendent of the United Methodist Church, Rev. Dr. Charles Boayue, Jr., invites all to our Eighth Annual Hands4Detroit! Join volunteers and Detroit neighbors in participating in beautification and clean-up projects, in performing small building and renovation projects, and join in a food campaign with Gleaners to drive out hunger in the Motor City.

The vision is two-fold: to show love for our neighbors beyond the walls of our buildings, and to remind everyone that when we work together, we can accomplish so much more.

The idea is simple, yet profound...get outside...get with others...get busy!

This year, we will join the Warrendale Community and the Islamic Center of Detroit for a time of work, food and fellowship.

Everyone (seniors, youth, young-adults, adults), can take part and are invited to spend at least part of the day with us! But register online at hands4detroit.org so that we can accommodate you and determine the number of lunches to prepare.
