

You are invited to take a tour! - February 22, 2025

In Honor of Black History Month

Please join the United Methodist Church / Michigan Area BMCR on a tour of the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History located at 315 E Warren Ave, Detroit, MI 48201

BMCR Purpose:

Empowering Black United Methodist clergy and laity for effective witness and service in local churches, conferences, schools, and the larger community;

Encouraging and involving Black United Methodists and others in the struggle for economic and social justice;

Exposing latent and overt forms of racism in all local and regional agencies and institutions of The United Methodist Church;

Acting as an agitating conscience on all boards and agencies of The United Methodist Church in order to keep them sensitive to the needs and expressions of a "genuinely" inclusive and relevant Church.

Mission Statement of the Charles H. Wright Museum

The Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History opens minds and changes lives through the exploration and celebration of African American history and culture.

Vision Statement for the Charles H. Wright Museum

Our vision is of a world in which the adversity and achievement of African American history inspire everyone toward greater understanding, acceptance, and unity.
